In a recent article in the Youth's Companion, on "How to cure a cold," the writer advises a hot lemonade to be taken at bed time. It is a dangerous treatment, especially during the severe cold weather of the winter months, as it opens the pores of the skin and leaves the system in such condition that another and much more severe cold is almost certain to be contracted. Many years constant use and the experience of thousands of persons of all ages, has fully demonstrated that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts in perfect harmony with nature, relieves the lungs liquefies the tough, tenacious mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and restores the system to a strong and healthy condition. Fifty cent bottles for sale by H. J. Peto.

A Valuable Medical Reference.

The edition for 1890 of the sterling Medical Annual, known as Huesteter's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained, free of cost, of druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the United States, Mexico, and indeed in every country of the Western Hemisphere. This Almanac has been issued regularly since the commencement of every year for over one fourth of a century. It combines with the soundest practical advice for the preservation and restoration of health, a large amount of interesting and amusing light reading, and the calendar, astronomical calculations, chronological items, &c., are prepared with great care, and will be found entirely accurate. Huesteter & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood.

The Chamber of Torture.

Is the apartment to which the unhappy sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism is confined. Here the crisis of pain is reached, that fine preservative, Huesteter's Stomach Epiphany, is used by persons of a merciful tendency, much misery is thereby avoided. Not only does it soothe and soothe, while having more potent specific effect, are the very desirable at times. Yet can they produce no lasting effect upon rheumatism, because they have no power to eliminate from the blood the rheumatic virus. Huesteter's Stomach Epiphany does this, and checks at the outset a disease which, if allowed to gain headway, it is next to impossible to dislodge or to do more than relieve. Rheumatism, it should be remembered, is a disease with a fatal tendency from its proneness to attack the heart. A resort to the Bitters should, therefore, be prompt. Dyspepsia, kidney complaint, malaria and nervousness are relieved by it.

If you want to get fresh telegraphic (no grapevine) news, read the EPIPHANY.

There was a terrible epidemic of dysentery and bloody flux in Pope County, Illinois, last summer. As many as five deaths occurred in one day. Messrs. Walter Brothers, of Waltersburg, sold over 380 bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy during this epidemic and says they never heard of its failing in any case when the directions were followed. It was the only medicine used that did cure the worst cases. Many persons were cured by it after the doctors had given them up. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. J. Peto.

Died.

Thos. Delaney yesterday received the sad news of the death of his sister, Maria, at Pioche, Nevada. It seems that the news of the death of their mother was too severe a shock. Miss Maria was well known here, where she lived and attended school up to about a year ago. She was beloved by her teacher and playmates and was one of the brightest pupils of the school. She was about 14 years of age. Every one sympathizes with the family in their double bereavement.

The bladder was rather premature last evening in announcing the birth of a son to the wife of R. C. Kettlewell. Such an event had not taken place up to 3 o'clock this morning. What's the matter with surprising the people with a correct item sometimes?

Mr. Moore, the Post Master at Bradshaw, Va., after reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, concluded to try a small bottle of it. He says: "I used it in two cases for colic and three for diarrhea with perfect satisfaction. One dose gave relief in every case but one, that was a bad case of colic and required the second dose. I have handled a great deal of patent medicine as agent and for my own use, but never tried any that gave as good results as 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy.' Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by H. J. Peto.
